About Peter McVerry Trust

Peter McVerry Trust is a national housing and homeless charity committed to reducing homelessness and the harm caused by substance misuse and social disadvantage.

The charity provides low-threshold entry services, primarily to younger people and vulnerable adults with complex needs, and offers pathways out of homelessness based on the principles of the Housing First model.

In 2022, the charity worked with over 12,000 people and was active in 28 local authorities across Ireland.

Role overview

Peter McVerry Trust runs two specialist Learning centres, PMVT Learning Centre – Carline in the Balgaddy/ Lucan area and PMVT Learning Centre – CMS which is located in Dublin South inner city.

As part of Peter McVerry Trust's commitment to supporting young people to reach their full potential we are committed to addressing the needs of early school leavers. The main objective of the learning centers is to support these young people to complete Junior Cert program and to ensure that the students are supported to re-engage with mainstream education setting or progress to further training.

We are currently seeking applications for an Art teacher position (6 hours per week) for Junior Certificate for PMVT Learning Centre - CMS. We are also seeking applications to form a panel of substitute teachers.
