About Peter McVerry Trust

Peter McVerry Trust is a national housing and homeless charity committed to reducing homelessness and the harm caused by substance misuse and social disadvantage.

The charity provides low-threshold entry services, primarily to younger people and vulnerable adults with complex needs, and offers pathways out of homelessness based on the principles of the Housing First model.

In 2022, the charity worked with over 12,000 people and was active in 28 local authorities across Ireland.

Role overview

PMVT have a number of residential aftercare services which provide placements to young people who are transitioning from Children's Residential and Foster Care placements at 18 years of age.

These placements offer a period of semi-independence to support the young person to develop the skills for independent living. Placements are underpinned by the Welltree Model of Care, which is a trauma and attachment-informed model which helps guide keywork interventions and promote each young person's well-being.

Each young person is offered an active programme to support the development of living skills, promote self-esteem and self-efficacy and provide the young person with the skills and confidence to move onwards to independent living.
