

Peter McVerry Trust Annual Report 2023

Our Vision, Mission, and Aims

Vision

An Ireland that supports all those on the margins and upholds their rights to full inclusion in society. Peter McVerry Trust is committed to reducing homelessness, the harm caused by substance misuse and social disadvantage.

Mission

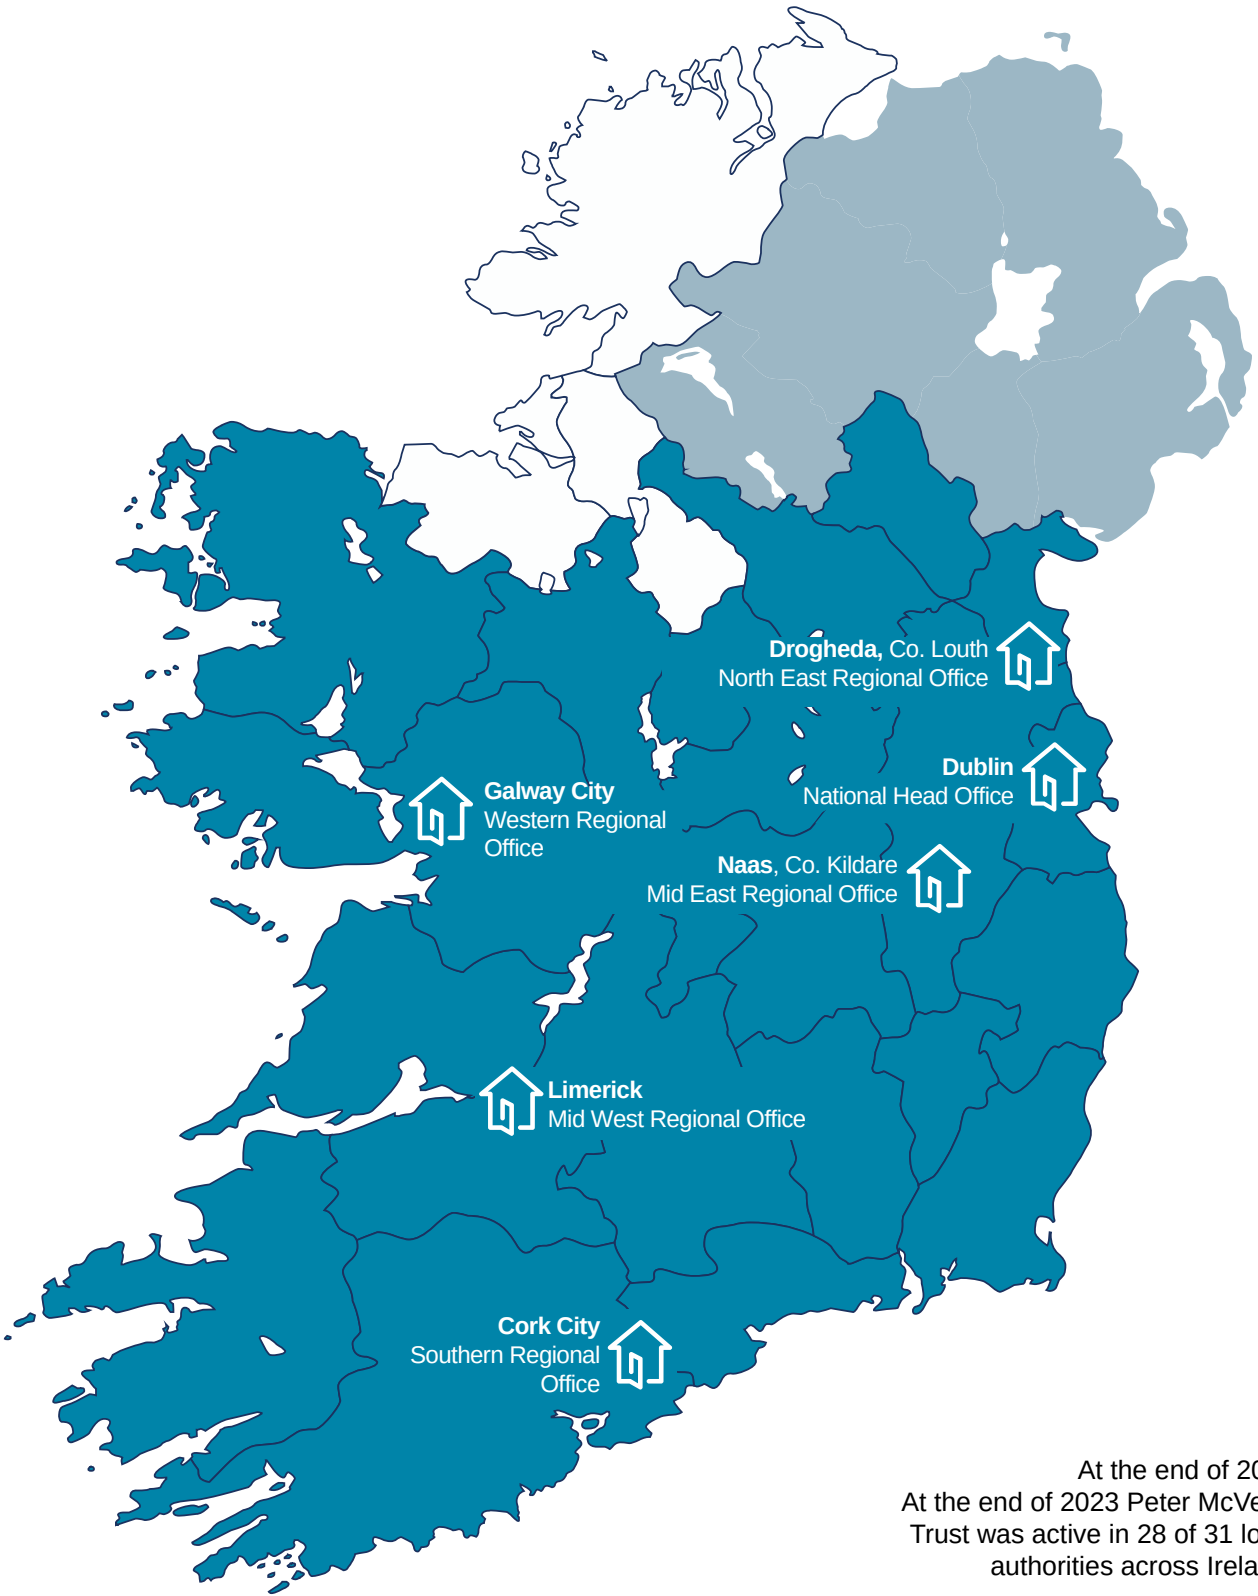

Peter McVerry Trust provides low threshold entry services, primarily to younger people and vulnerable adults with complex needs, and offers pathways out of homelessness based on the principles of the Housing First model. To target those most marginalised in society and offer a safe, challenging and supportive environment through our service provision.

Aims

To treat participants with warmth and respect and actively encourage them to be involved in all aspects of their own support plan. To offer a comprehensive prevention package of support to reduce the likelihood of homelessness to those leaving care, those leaving treatment, those leaving prison or other institutions and those whose accommodation is vulnerable. To offer a comprehensive package of support that will provide the best opportunity possible for them and assist them in planning a pathway out of homelessness or drug use, or if they continue to use drugs, to assist them towards some level of stabilisation in order to live a life of dignity, with respect and opportunity. To assist each person to re-establish himself or herself in the community and move towards greater independence.

Areas of Activity 2023

At the end of 2023
At the end of 2023 Peter McVerry Trust was active in 28 of 31 local authorities across Ireland.

Message from the Founder, Fr Peter McVerry

2023 was a very difficult and traumatic year for Peter McVerry Trust. During the year, we discovered a large financial problem, which led to two investigations, by the Charities Regulator and the Approved Housing Bodies Regulator and required an exceptional payment of €15 million by the Government. This is described in detail in the 2023 Accounts published in November 2025.

A major failing in the reporting structure from the executive team to the Board and a failure in the financial oversight by the Board was revealed. Much of 2023 was spent identifying these failures and starting to put in robust structures to ensure that such failings could not re-occur. We have now made significant progress in that regard.

On a more positive note, our services to homeless people, families, children and people in crisis continued without interruption. Over fourteen thousand people were accommodated and supported across all of our services including our hostels, apartments, family hubs, drug treatment services, children's homes, and prevention services. We have a very loyal and dedicated staff team who have provided the services and care which we offer to all people who seek our support.

And a board who give their time and expertise in a voluntary capacity. I want to thank them all for staying with us during this difficult year and for continuing to change the lives of some homeless people and giving hope to many more.

There is a growing sense of hopelessness amongst homeless people, as the options for moving out of homelessness are reducing all the time. Very few private rented houses or apartments are available to those who depend on the Housing Assistance Payment and social housing is in very short supply. We are conscious that we are only sticking our finger in the dyke – the number of homeless people continues to rise relentlessly every month and the length of time people remain in homelessness also continues to increase.

In 2018, there were about 8,000 adults registered as homeless; in six years that number has almost doubled. And all the evidence suggests that the number will continue to rise every month. However, each person who is accommodated, supported or helped to address their addiction is one more person whose life is given a new direction. Many homeless people express their gratitude to our staff, although they do not expect gratitude, as the work we do in trying to reduce homelessness is not charity but justice.

We are committed to continuing to strengthen Peter McVerry Trust in 2024, to reach out to as many homeless people as our resources allow, particularly to the most vulnerable and needy, and to providing a service that is caring and efficient.

Since homelessness is a political problem, it must be solved politically. We will also continue to campaign for an end to homelessness and put forward our proposals for society to move more quickly and more effectively in that direction.

Fr Peter McVerry SJ

Our Services

PREVENTION SERVICES

Peter McVerry Trust prevention services and supports aim to prevent people from ever entering homelessness. We continued to increase our investment in our prevention services throughout 2023.

Our two Learning Centres provide a unique alternative education programme to young students who are unable to engage in the mainstream educational setting. The students are supported by a team of trained teachers and social care workers who work together to support the student to engage in an education programme that meets their needs.

Our PMVT Learning Centre – CMS was successfully awarded €12,000 in additional funding through the Reach Fund in 2023. This funding enabled us to enhance the IT equipment, purchase additional textbooks and strengthen the art and woodwork programmes with new materials.

In 2023, 18 young people graduated from our Learning Centres. These young people progressed onto the Leaving Certificate cycle, further education and training.

U18S AND AFTERCARE

Protecting vulnerable young people is at the core of the work and ethos of Peter McVerry Trust.

In 1979, Fr. Peter McVerry opened our first children's service to provide accommodation to homeless boys in Dublin city centre. Since then, we have expanded to six U18 residential services.

The services offer a highly individualised developmental programme that supports each young person's progression towards adulthood and endeavours to equip them with the necessary skills needed for positive self-care, independent living and social integration. In 2023, 95 children and young people were supported across our U18 services.

Our Aftercare services provide placements to young people exiting State care or foster care to support their progression into suitable independent living. Aftercare Stepdown services offer a progression option for young people who have completed the Aftercare programme.

In partnership with TUSLA, we opened three additional Aftercare and Aftercare Stepdown services in 2023.

In 2023, 37 young people were supported across the Aftercare and Aftercare Stepdown services.

Housing Developments

In 2023, Peter McVerry Trust continued to deliver social housing units in partnership with the Department of Housing, Local Government and Heritage, the Housing Agency and Local Authorities across Ireland.

In February, we commenced work on the redevelopment of the former Office of Public Works building at 2 – 3 Lower Mallow Street, Limerick, into 12 single-bed apartments for people on the local social housing waiting list.

In March, we delivered nine new social housing apartments at a former Christian Brothers School on Main Street, Charleville, Cork. The school has been a landmark on Charleville's Main Street since 1866 and was attended by President Éamon de Valera. The units were launched by Tánaiste Micheál Martin.

In July, we launched 14 new social housing family homes in Moyross, Limerick. Minister for Housing Darragh O'Brien and Cllr Gerald Mitchell, Mayor of the City and County of Limerick were in attendance to officially launch the new homes, which were made possible with support from the Department for Housing's Capital Assistance Scheme (CAS).

It's definitely given me more confidence in myself. They gave me that little bit more of a push to say look, you can do this, no matter what, you can do this. And I've went and done it and it's going great for me. It's just unbelievable.
